inconsistent with the constitution or laws of the commonwealth of Kentucky.

§ 21. The council shall have power over the streets, alleys, sidewalks, public squares, public lots, wharves and landings of said city, and are authorized, and it is made their duty, to open roads, streets and alleys where and when the same is required for the convenience of the public and the wants of society, and may do this by purchase from or by the consent of the owners, or by writ of ad quod damnum sued out by the mayor in the county court of Breckenridge county, as provided for the opening of public roads in the county, and said county court is hereby clothed with the jurisdiction thereof, and the same proceedings may be had as is now provided by law for public roads. And when such highways are opened, they shall vest in the city as public highways, and shall be controlled by the council. It shall be the duty of the council to keep the streets, alleys and sidewalks in the city in good repair, and for a failure so to do they may be prosecuted individually by indictment in the circuit court of Breckenridge county under the laws governing overseers of the public highways; that they shall, as the wants of society require and the means in the treasury will allow, grade, pave or macadamize the streets of said city; that any street shall have been paved or macadamized, or at any time when the council deem it advisable and necessary, they shall have the power and authority to cause the sidewalk or walks of any street or streets to be graded and paved with any material chosen by them at the expense of the owners of lots fronting the same, and if any owner of such lot refuses to do so himself, or herself, after a reasonable notice is given, the council may cause the same to be done and the cost thereof may be listed and collected as other city taxes are collected, and lien therefor shall be given to the city for the payment, and the said lot shall be sold for the same in the same manner as provided herein for the sale of property real for other taxes.

§ 22. The same right of redemption for real estate sold for city taxes, or under the last foregoing section, shall exist as exists under the general law under sales for state and county revenue, and the law so provided shall govern hereunder.

§ 23. The council shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to make by laws for the management and control of the wharves and public landings in the city on the Ohio river, belonging to the city, for their protection, and repair; they may lease the same, may fix rates of wharfage, commissions and charges; may, if they deem it advisable, appoint a wharfmaster and collect the proceeds, or may lease the exclusive privilege of the wharfage at such rate as they may determine and fix the rate thereof; may confer the duties and powers of a special policeman upon the appointed wharfmaster or the lessee, for the purpose of keeping order at the wharves and landings and the protection of the property, and may make and enact all necessary by-laws for the proper care, control and management of said wharves and landings not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

§ 24. The council shall have power to levy and collect all taxes which the trustees of the town were authorized to collect before the passage of this act not otherwise directed herein; shall have the exclusive right to license all taverns, houses of entertainment, saloons, coffee houses, and all houses wherein intoxicating liquors may be sold; provided, the state tax, wherever there may be such, shall be paid as required by the general law.

§ 25. The council may in lieu of an ad valorem tax levy a special tax each year on each house for the sale of merchandise of any kind, or for the purchase and sale of country produce, or for dealing in tobacco, or for dealing in goods and wares of any kind, provided said tax shall not be less than $2.00 nor more than $5.00 on each house or business, to be governed as near as may be by the amount of business done, and provided this special tax may be in addition to the license tax herein before provided for.

§ 26. The council may erect such buildings as they may deem necessary and the public good requires. They may erect a city prison, or workhouse, and regulate the management thereof.

§ 27. The council may regulate buying and selling articles of food and provender, and the measuring, weighing, gauging and inspecting of merchandise sold anywhere in the city, and may impose penalties for fraud or misrepresentation of quality or quantity of the same, for the sale of any such article that is adulterated, or an imitation of the genuine as genuine. They may license and regulate porters, carmen, wagons, hacks, or other vehicles plying in the city for hire, fix the rate of charges therefor, and prohibit those not licensed.

BIG SPRING.

I will attempt to write again, hoping this letter will not have as bad luck as the other one.

Miss Ida Meador gave us a social Thursday, the 21st ult. We enjoyed ourselves splendidly.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. G. M. Dowell is improving, after several days serious illness.

Miss Ashcraft is visiting this place, the guest of Rev. J. S. King and wife.

Mrs. H. Z. Hardaway to Miss Jennie Simmons last Wednesday February 27, at the residence of the bride's parents in Bullitt county. May your lives be long and happy.

Mr. Aaron Moorman left home last Tuesday for Missouri.

Miss Mollie Jones is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Meador.

Miss Kate Babbage is getting along nicely with her music class. We wish you much success, Miss Kate.

Mr. Willie Woodson and wife, and Miss Sue Board, have returned home from Florida.

Mr. J. W. Hardin, of Kansas, made a flying trip to relatives here last week.

Miss Bessie Robinson is teaching school at Napa, Schow house.

DRY VALLEY.

Leap year comes just every four years. Make it count, girls.

Mr. Joe be careful: whose girl you aim to go with to singing next time. The old lady will give you a dose of broomstick tea next time.

There is talk of Mr. Dick Brown marrying without ever taking a straight look at his girl. Dick, you had better look out you might get cheated.

Mr. Tom Compton has suffered more from the flood than any one else in this neighborhood. He could not cross the creek.

We do not blame Mr. Nickack for wanting a twenty-foot road, for we think himself and at least two of his daughters will occupy the whole space.

Mr. Henry Gibson's byword is still "Oh, Shaw!"

Mr. W. G. and family are now reaping the benefit of his new county road. The rejoicing is great. Guess sign boards will be up soon, but where, O where, will they direct to? Millie Ader's field? Ha, ha, ha, ho, ho, ho!

Rumor says there came very near being a row while cutting out the new road, in which the applicant took no part, for he was seen scurrying away as though he meant to leave the case for the remainder cows to settle. Who would have thought a man so substantial as he would have left a crowd in so critical a condition?

The new road has caused trouble in Dry Valley, and also in the Walnut Grove church, which we are fearful will result in some one coming out the small end of the horn, if they at all get out. Bear in mind that don't mean Shaw, for he is a good one.

WEBSTER.

Mr. H. H. Norton is the liveliest and most popular young gentleman in this vicinity with the girls; but look out, Mr. Harry, or that fellow who goes to the big man's house, and sits with his heel on his knee and perps at the girl, will get away with you.

Mr. Dock, how is your Stephensport cor respondent? Are you loving her now as well as ever? Dock, don't blot Miss Jaff out. She is a daisy—little tricky—but I think you will have to do a clean piece of sparring if you want to beat Mr. Andy.

Mr. Snider is a business little fellow. Don't you think so, Miss Eliza? I do, and if you did not wear those curls I think I could get him myself.

Mr. Dave Addison waits on all customers when Mr. Clint is out. He and Mr. Snider are both doing good business in their stores.

This winter weather has thrown all the farmers behind with their work.

Dr. G. H. Kurtz is the boss horse trader in this country.

Dr. H. B. Kurtz had a call for surveying a farm for Mr. Harry Norton that he purchased from Mr. John Brown, and I think that Harry is going to take him a cook in right soon. I don't think Harry is going to Mr. A. J. K.—so much for nothing.

Mr. Mail Carrier, how is that fellow that cut his foot and could not get to go to the ball? Is he dead or alive? Nicks.

CLIFTON MILLS.

Oh! the flood! the flood!!
Oh! the rain and tummy roads.

Business has been quite good in our town, though, for the past two weeks, considering the inclement weather.

There has been quite a busting around in our locality for some days on account of scarcity of breadstuffs, but the mills are all running now at a very rapid rate.

If you want a good bargain in dry goods and groceries, call on B. A. Parks, at Clifton Mills.

The farmers have been making great efforts at plowing and harrowing for some days in this vicinity, but with very little success.

B. A. Parks takes all kinds of country produce at handsome figures in exchange for goods.

Mr. J. C. Wheeler, of this place, and Mrs. Abigail Bridwell, near here, are very ill of pneumonia fever, but both are thought convalescing at this date.

Messrs. Thomas Addison and H. B. Parks sent out sixteen hogsheads of tobacco on the high waters.

If you want a fancy suit of ready-made clothing cheap, call on B. A. Parks.

Look out for the railroad to come down Dry Valley shortly.

"Smart Aleck," what ever become of that goose?

The store at this place took in seventy-three dozen eggs in one day last week.

A. M. Glasgow, of this place, has his mill in better condition for making good flour than for some years past.

Call on B. A. Parks when he gets his new stock of goods up. He will be glad to have your patronage, and accommodate you with good bargains.

Mr. McEl Den contemplates going west to invest in lands.

As there has not been any communications from this place for some time, I will not weary your patience. Wishing success to the News and all its readers, I desist.

LITTLE GREEN.

So Sorry for Her Mother.
"You look sad, Birdie; what's the matter?" were the words addressed to Birdie McEnipin by her friend, Mollie Squires, as they met on Austin avenue.

"I'm not feeling well."

"Are you sick?"

"No, I'm not precisely sick, but I feel tired, overworked."

"Do tell me all about it."

"Well, you see our colored cook is sick, and now poor mother has to do all the cooking and scrubbing and washing and ironing, and it makes me feel so tired to see the old creature work. She is so slow."

The "bloody shirt" is worn out. It simply takes up time and does not convince any one. It is a rain washed and wind-torn old poster of politics which no one can ever patch up into anything effective. The antiquarians should give us a rest.—[Denver Tribune (rep).]
